

Sentence Starters:

We can start sentences in different ways to make our writing interesting. We can use fronted adverbials to help us do this. A fronted adverbial tells us where, when or how something happened i.e. Up in the sky, the sun was shining brightly.

Task: Match the opener to the sentence

Up in the sky,	I could see enormous black rain clouds moving slowly.
Amazingly,	I went to the park to play football with my dad.
In the distance,	the seagulls were swooping quickly and squawking loudly.
On Sunday,	there was a new chrysalis hanging in the pot.

Task: Use the opener and complete the sentence

1. Under a rock, _____

_____

2. Behind the bushes, _____

_____

3. All of a sudden, _____

_____

Can you write some sentences using a fronted adverbial opener of your own?
